

Amanda Droz
407-579-3642
drozamanda24@gmail.com

Entry-Level Writer / Passionate Storyteller

Open to Contract and full-time opportunities, available for remote or hybrid roles.

Skills & Abilities

I bring a versatile skill set that includes client engagement, content creation, and education. I excel in team management with a strong focus on detail and collaboration. My strengths in teamwork, active listening, and research make me a highly adaptable and effective professional.

Through my education at Full Sail University and beyond, I have developed proficiency in tools such as Adobe Create Suite, Microsoft Word, Final Draft, and social media platforms like TikTok and Instagram. Additionally, I maintain a professional presence on LinkedIn and manage a YouTube channel to showcase my work and connect with my audience.

Experience

Project and Portfolio III: Creative Writing– Online – Full Sail University – Grade: A (97.03) September 2025 – October 2025

I developed an instructional PowerPoint presentation teaching 5th grade students how to build a museum in their classroom. I also created a complete accompanying teacher's lesson plan, including objectives, activities, and assessments aligned with the slides. This project strengthened my skills in educational content design, curriculum planning, and presenting complex ideas in a clear, age-appropriate way.

Multimedia Storytelling– Online – Full Sail University – Grade A (96.25) November 2025 – December 2025

In this course I created my first music video using the song "Mother's Love" by Lady Harmony, telling the story of a young mother and her journey into motherhood, I developed a visual narrative that explores the deep, lasting love a mother has for her children, whether near or far. This project strengthened my skills in visual storytelling, emotional tone, shot planning, and aligning imagery with music and theme.

Professional Development Seminar I & II – Online – Full Sail University – Grade Range A- May 2025 – July 2026

In Professional Development Seminar I, I developed a written plan outlining immediate and 10-year SMART goals, focusing on career growth, skill development, and long-term creative writing objectives. In professional Development II, I refined a professional LinkedIn profile, including an updated summary, experience, and portfolio links to better present my skills and projects to potential employers and collaborators.

Education

Associate's degree in Creative Writing and Screenplay, Online, Full Sail University
June 2024 – Oct. 2025

Bachelor's degree in Creative Writing and Screenplay, Online, Full Sail University
June 2025 – Oct. 2026

Medical Assistant and Licensed Phlebotomist, Manchester N.H, Seacoast Career schools
Jan. 2010 June 2011

Communication/Leadership

Demonstrated expertise in effective collaboration, clear and concise writing, active listening, and simplifying complex concepts. Proficient in tailoring communication styles to suit diverse audiences and situations. Experienced in mentoring and training individuals to enhance their skill and overall performance.